10:00—16:00

WHERE

Banbury Quaker Meeting House

/// total.value.villa

OR online

An opportunity to consider concerns about climate change and the economy as one inter related system. We cannot solve climate change issues without changing the way we organise our economy.

The day will be interactive, with time to consider your own personal changes and those we might wish to undertake in our communities.

Spaces are limited so please book your place at:
